WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY

You can absorb facts in minutes, not hours with our accurate, up-to-date information on companies, industries and countries across the world. Hear it first hand from your peers.

“We recommend MarketLine to our students when they are looking for SWOT, Five Forces and PESTLE analysis. I can add that we every year have a lesson for the students where we amongst other databases show them Marketline. After the lesson the students search themselves and there is often more than 100 student so that might be one of the reason that we use it so much.

University Library of Southern Denmark

“MarketLine Advantage is a winner with us on two counts. Firstly, it comes in at a very competitive price and secondly, the information provided is firstclass.

Istitute of Technology Carlow

“We purchased MarketLine because we needed access to data on international market research. MarketLine fills that gap and so much more. Not only is there industry research but also company information, country data, deals info and case studies. The more you use it the more information you realise is there.
